(Formerly known as Fall Conference Leadership Training)

Special features include:

- Leadership training for WELCA unit treasurers and secretaries
- Presentation and discussion on “Who We Are” as a Synodical Women's Organization
- “What's Next” by Lori Wells, the President of our Synod's SWO
- Guest speakers at the Osseo event will be Jeff Ryan and Paul Rykken, who are educators with experience teaching first Nation history and concerns at the high school and college levels.
- Confirmation of our guest speaker at the Hayward event is underway. Plans are to have an Ojibwa tribal member who can speak first-hand about the history and culture of the First Nation people in that area.
- Lunch, prepared by the host churches, will be served following the event. It is suggested that the local units pay the registration fee.

Cost: $15.00
